High Mormon Officials Gather For Meeting,

SESSION BEGINS TODAY

IMPORTANT MATTERS ARE TO BE DISCUSSED.

Question of Tithing and the Spiritual Side of the Members of the Vari-Betterment.

The meeting of higher officials of the Mormon church called for teday by President Snow will probably be the most important event of the kind in the history of the organization. Matters of vital interest are to be discussed, and all who are to be admitted to the

and all who are to be admitted to the gathering will be allowed a free expression of contiment.

While the question of paying tithing, and the placing of the church on a more solid financial basis will perhaps take up a considerable part of the discussion, the spiritual side will not be lost sight of. The men who have been ralled together look after the spiritual as well as the temporal side of their flocks.

All of the more prominent officers will be on hand when President Snow opens the session. The first presidency will be complete, George Q. Cannon having arrived from New York last night.

"While Mexico is a good country, it has its disadvantages, like all others. In some places it is hard to get a sufficient water supply, and hundreds of fine acres are lying dead on account of it. Another difficulty we meet with its the Mexican farmer, who never falls to steal water at every opportunity, and he puts us to a great deal of trouble.

and he puts us to a great deal of trouble.

"The Mexican is a peculiar person to deal with. Some of them are grateful, but to the most part the element of gratitude has been eliminated from their characters, and when that is gone,
the foundation that sustains high principles is gone; consequently they are low, cunning and treacherous. But there are many of them among the higher officials who are honorable and latelligent, and from these persons we receive the most courteous treatment.

"I don't think Mexico is a hard place to get a start in, and I would advise any young man who is capable and cherselic to come down to Mexico.
While there is one thing to remember, that it is an easy matter to drift into a languid, listless way of existing, as so many do. This fact we deplore very much.

"In regard to the meeting tomorrow."

with regard to the meeting tomorrow, am not cognizant of any facts constraining what will be done, except, of ourse, what we all have surmised yer since it was announced—that it a movement looking to the financial frairs of the church. Just what loves are going to be made I do not now.

Mr. Eying's Close Shave.

Mr. Eying's Close Shave.

Henry Eying, first councilor to President Ivins, was also seen at the White House just high! Mr. Eying is colonizing agent at Colonia Juarez, and speaks very highly of the treatment accorded him by the Mexican officials. "Of course, said Mr. Eying, "there are some among them who are officious and disagreeable. I remember one little fellow, by the name of Mattorus, a very pompous man, who made himself so offensive that we tried to have him removed. He learned that I was among those seeking his removal, and he began to carry falsehoeds about me to the head official, and when I approached him he assumed an air of innocence, but I took him to the head official and forced him to retract. A Mexican hates to be humiliated. He can stand anything better than that, and knowing this fellow's disposition, I kept my eye on him.

"Finally one day he came up to me."

dent Snow himself cannot state what will take place tomorrow. Of course there must have been a definite reason for making the call, and it must have been for a definite purpose, but I think a great many things will come up that no one anticipates at this time. However that may be, it is a movement of some moment, or it would never have covered."

Arizona Men Here.

C. P. Anderson of St. Johns, Arig., is here also to attend the meeting. Mr. Anderson is one of the counselors to the president of the St. Johns stake. 'I am at as great a loss to know,' said he, "what is to be done tomorrow as you are. Of course we all have our ideas, and I have mine. I have felt that something of this nature was going to be done. I suppose it is because I have felt the need of it. That it is for the purpose I think it is, and that is to find out what can actually be done towards liquidating the debts of the church and placing its resources on a permanent and substantial, as well as definite footing. I admire this move of President Snow's, and I think in a few years the people will bless him for the wise course he has taken."

Bishop H. L. Marble of Coucho, Arig. is another visitor to the meeting. When seen at the White House last night, Mr. Marble said: "This move of President Snow's is a very laudable one, and I feel that the entire church is sedne to C. P. Anderson of St. Johns, Ariz.,

Marine said: "This move of President Show's is a very inudable one, and I feel that the entire church is going to derive a great benefit from it.aithough I do not know jost what will be done. I feel sure it will relate to the financial affairs of the church, since those who look after her finances are the only ones who have been called tagether."

Among others the following are some of the presidents of stakes and bishops who are here to attend the meeting that will be held in the temple this morning: Bishop H. Vunder of Alta; Bishop Peter Anderson of Oak City; Bishop S. D. Coiron of Vernal; Bishop S. D. Coiron of Vernal; Bishop J. M. Shaffer of Vernal; President W. H. Gibbons of St. Johns, Ariz; President C. P. Anderson, St. Johns, Ariz; Bishop William H. Reynolds, Luna, N. M.; Bishop John L. Whetteir, Colonia Garv's, Mexico; Bishop James L. Ivins on Mexico.

Bishops and presidents of stakes have been coming in from the remotest parts of the country, as well as those nearer the city. Among the prominent visitors is Hon. A. W. Ivins, president of the Mexican stake. Mr. Ivins was seen last night and talked very interestingly of the colony in Mexico.

"We are getting more concessions from the Mexican government," said he, "than any colony of foreigness in Mexico. Of course this is because of superior citizenship. Our irrigation system and mode of farming generally is recognized as the best, and the official there who corresponds to our system of farming, and advising his countrymen to adopt it, which all are doing whe have the advantage of seeing our farms.

"While Mexico is a good country, it has its disadyantages like all of their flocks."

HELD WARM SESSION

Fourth of July Committee Mixed Patriotism and Religion.

TROUBLE OVER SPEAKERS

MORMONS REFUSED TO ACCEPT DR. ILIFF.

And Roberts and Whitney Were Barred by Gentiles-Senator Cannon Neither Mormon Nor Gentile-Celebration to Be Grand Affair-Preparations Nearly Completed.

A hitherto untold tale concerning the oratorical features of the Fourth of July celebration leaked out yesterday. According to this story, the Gentile and Mormon sections of the sub-committee on speakers held a somewhat tropical session before the speakers mittee on speakers held a somewhat tropical session before the speakers were finally decided upon. It was tacilily understood that the Mormon and Gentile eléments were to be given equal preminence in the celebration and that the speakers should be chosen to represent each side. But when it came to selecting speakers, a stumbling block was encountered, as the orators proposed by either side were not acceptable to the other.

When the committee held its session it is said, Governor Wells was named first and he was acceptable to both sides. Then the Gentile members proposed Dr. Hiff, and trouble started right there, for the Mormon members refused point blank to accept a speaker regarded by them as an anti-Mormon agitator. They further declared that if it was insisted that Dr. Hiff's name be pinced upon the list, that of B., H. Roberts should also go down.

This was too much for the Gentile portion of the committee. It was insisted with some vehemence that if a line was to be drawn in one direction the rule must be permitted to work both ways, and they wanted no polysamists.

So neither Dr. Hiff nor Mr. Roberts

Captain Barratt was at a loss to know why his chickens hied themselves to safe quarters yesterday, but attributed it to the fact that there were so many ministers present. Dr. Hiff and Rev. A H. Henry, however, denied the soft impeachment.

Senator Cannon's Religion.

Senator Cannon's Religion.

A somewhat amusing incident, involving a joke at ex-Senator Frank J. Cannon's expense, occurred at one stage of the proceedings, according to the story. The Mormon members suggested that the Gentiles place Senator Cannon's name on the list, as a representative of the Gentile side. The latter expressed surprise at this proposition, but were willing to accent the senator as a representative of the Mormon contingent. The Mormons insisted that the senator was not a Mormon, and the Gentiles asked, "Since when?"

"Since the Theatre meeting," was Since the Theatre meeting," was the reply.
